Date

The international mission of Brigham Young University–Hawaii is to educate young men and women and help them return to their home country prepared to provide leadership in the Church, in civic and social affiliations, and within their families. Therefore, as a participant in the International Work Opportunity Returnability Kuleana (IWORK) program, students promise that upon completion of their educational experience, the student will return to their home country/region.

Requirements for IWORK Loan Deferment

- Each year, former IWORK students can defer (put loan payments on hold for a temporary period of time) their IWORK loan portion as long as they are attending full-time at an approved graduate school, going on a mission or other reasons. You must submit the following documents in order to defer your IWORK loan portion for this year:

☐ IWORK Loan Deferment Form ☐ Spouse in school at BYUH

Reason: Graduate School Mission Academic Training Name and ID: _____

☐ Enrollment Verification documentation/Transcripts (Yearly) if in graduate school ☐ Other: _____

☐ Copy of mission letter if going on mission

- This deferment must be approved through the IWORK exceptions committee in order to defer the IWORK loan.
- IWORK students MUST return home in order for their IWORK loan to be forgiven. If they do not plan to return, they can also repay their loan portion according to the repayment terms and conditions stated on their IWORK Master Promissory Note. Those going on missions must return to BYU–Hawaii the semester after returning from their mission.
