Eligible noncitizens must meet with a financial aid counselor to determine the need for other documents ie. I-94, I-551, I-571, or I.327.

Financial need is normally based on each student's and their family's annual gross income for prior tax year. If your income has decreased or you have special circumstances that were not taken into account on your FAFSA, we may be able to re-evaluate your financial need based on your projected gross income or the current academic year

If we are able to make adjustments to your application, we will submit these corrections to the Department of Education. If you qualify for additional aid based on your adjusted financial need, we will award the additional aid when the correction process is complete. The entire process is usually completed by three weeks from submission but can take longer. To ensure you receive a decision for a particular semester, your petition should be submitted two weeks prior to your last day of attendance of that semester.

Circumstances we may consider:

- Unemployment or change in employment
- Unusual medical and dental expenses
- Excessive debt related to business loss or unemployment
- Non-recurring income
- Separation, divorce, disability, or death

Ineligible Circumstances: We cannot make adjustments for any of the following circumstance:

- Car payments or car insurance
- Consumer debt (credit cards)
- Chapter 7 personal bankruptcy
- Mortgages and rent (unless you are maintaining 2 or more households)
- Home equity, IRA 403B and 401K loans
- Parents will not help pay for college
- Family missionary expenses
